

Canadian Health Economics Study Group meetings
May 27-28, 2021

All times EST

Zoom Link:

here

Thursday May 27

Chair:

Paul Grootendorst

2:00-2:05 Welcome

2:05-2:35 Alexander Karaivanov (Simon Fraser University)

Face Masks, Public Policies and Slowing the Spread of COVID-19: Evidence from Canada

Discussant

Sisira Sarma (Western University)

2:35-3:05 Jesse Matheson (University of Sheffield)

Zoomshock: The geography and local labour market consequences of working from home

Discussant:

Keyvan Eslami (Ryerson University)

3:05-3:35 Samuel Kembou Nzale (Lausanne University)

Physician responses to exposure to P4P incentives: Experimental evidence

Discussant:

Mehdi Ammi (Carleton University)

3:35-4:05 Keyvan Eslami (Ryerson University)

Lockdown and Testing at a Time of Uncertainty: Is Overreaction Justified in the Face of Pandemics?

Discussant:

Jesse Matheson (University of Sheffield)

4:05-4:35 Brandyn Churchill (Carleton University/Vanderbilt University)

Bad Lighting: Effects of Youth Indoor Tanning Prohibitions

Discussant:

Natalie Malak (University of Alabama)

4:35-5:05 Arezou Zaresani (University of Manitoba, Australian National University and IZA)

Structure of Return-to-Work Policies and Labor Supply in Disability Insurance Programs

Discussant:

Brandyn Churchill (Carleton University)

5:05 - Social Time

Friday May 28

Chair:

Jill Furzer

9:25-9:30 Welcome

9:30-10:15 Keynote speaker

Arthur Sweetman (McMaster University)

Long-term Care: An Introduction to the Economic Issues

10:15-10:45 Livio Di Matteo (Lakehead University)

The Evolution of Health Expenditures in Canada: 1926 to 2019

Discussant

Paul Grootendorst (University of Toronto)

10:45-11:15 Daniel Goetz (University of Toronto Mississauga)

Online Care Expansion and Patient Access: Evidence from Talk Therapists

Discussant

Erin Strumpf (McGill University)

11:15-11:45 Michael Lebenbaum (University of Toronto)

Genetic endowments and social capital: An investigation of the role of genetic nurturing

Discussant:

Maripier Isabelle (Laval University)

11:45-12:15 Annual meeting of the Canadian Health Economics Association

